

Looking for Models

Strut for Prevention Fashion Show

Have you been effected by cancer in some way or another? Are you a cancer survivor? Do you know a friend or family member who has battled cancer? If so, then Package of Prevention is looking for YOU to model in our Strut for Prevention Fashion Show on September 25, 2010 from 7:00 – 9:00 PM at Trina Turk Clothing Store in Los Angeles.

The purpose of our fashion show is to encourage people to not only learn about cancer prevention but also celebrate and “model” their story about cancer so others can learn and be inspired from them. Proceeds from this event will go toward continuing our mission to educate, encourage, and get people talking about early detection in order to increase the number of people getting screened for cancer regularly.

Proceeds from this event will go toward the Beryl V. Smith scholarship fund, which awards scholarships to high school students whose parents or guardians have or have had cancer. The scholarship hopes to help young individuals continue on with their education in order to pursue future career aspirations.

We are looking for models in all shapes, sizes, ages, etc. The only requirement is that you have been affected by cancer.

If you are interested in being a model in the Fashion Show please send the following:

1. Letter explaining how you have been effected by cancer in 500 words or less
2. Photo-no bigger than 4x6
3. Please be sure to include your name, email, and a number we can contact you at.

Please send entries no later than July 30, 2010 to:
admin@packageofprevention.com
Those selected will be notified by August 15, 2010.
